April 19, 2026
Third Sunday of Easter

Today’s readings focus on a theme of ‘sojourning.’ As Christian stewards, we know that our lives are a sojourn toward the ultimate destination of heaven.

Our second reading instructs us to “conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourn, realizing that you were ransomed...with the precious blood of Christ.” What a powerful reminder during the Easter season of our ‘why’ for embracing the stewardship way of life – we have been ransomed by our Lord’s saving death and resurrection. Our lives are a gift from Him – as we sojourn through life, we are to make our lives a gift to Him in return.

So, what can we do when we become discouraged – when we need our hearts set on fire once again? We can go to the same sources as the two disciples from our Gospel today on the road to Emmaus-the Scripture (the living Word of God) and the Eucharist (the very source and summit of our faith). Frequent recourse to these two gifts from our Lord is essential to sustain us in the stewardship way of life.

APRIL 19- “Nothing we do to defend the human person, no matter how small, is ever unfruitful or forgotten. Our actions touch other lives and move other hearts in ways we can never fully understand in this world. Don’t ever underestimate the beauty and power of the witness you give in your pro-life work.” Archbishop Charles Chaput, Archbishop of Philadelphia, April 8, 2011
