Going the Second Mile: A farmer left his son to plow a large field, instructing him to plow out the peach trees and try to finish the job by the end of the day. When the farmer returned that evening, he discovered that his son had plowed all the way out to the road, far beyond the peach trees. It was almost twice the amount of work he had expected his son to do. When he asked his son about it, the boy replied, "Dad, I plowed out to the peach tree, because you told me to. But I plowed on out to the road, because I wanted to." The wanted to in this boy's response is the language of genuine love. Only the love of Christ within us can compel us to go beyond the requirements and give more than expected. Christians should pray daily for the love of Christ to direct us in all our dealings with others. "And whoever compels you to go one mile." Jesus taught, "go with him two." (Matt. 5:41).

Liturgical Reflection... Today Christians remember the glorious resurrection of our Savior. Death could not keep the Lord in the tomb. Christ has conquered death and new life is ours. On Easter Sunday we stand and renew our baptismal promises. We reject evil and sin, and profess our faith in God who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We are claimed for Jesus Christ who died and rose. For fifty days we will sing our alleluias and praise God for the gift of resurrection. Sorrow leads to joy; despair fades into hope, and apathy is overcome by divine love. Happy Easter! Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 South Logan Boulevard, Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania 16648.

“Father of Life, you have given us an amazing human family. Within this family is so much diversity and yet all of us are your own. Give us the insight and courage to love another as you love us.”

Gospel: John 20:1-9

Millions of Christians around the world celebrate the Resurrection today. It all began simply on the first Easter with one person telling another: “Mary told Peter” and “they believed.” Faith is passed one person to another; it is caught, not taught and parents are the most effective persons to pass faith to their children.

The Knights of Columbus are having a Marianna Hoagie and pizza fundraiser the last day to order is Sunday, April 28. Delivery will be Friday, May 10. A paper is in the vestibule. Please put your phone number on the sheet when you order.
