PRO LIFE CORNER

One thing is certain: When the time has come, nothing which is man-made will subsist. One day, all human accomplishments will be reduced to a pile of ashes. But every single child a woman has conceived will live forever, for he has been given an immortal soul made to God's image and likeness.

Hope For Those Who Have None: It can be very difficult when life's circumstances are too cold to grim to focus on the beautiful. But the story of the Nativity offers hope for those who have none. Who would have ever thought that the birth of an innocent baby in a stable would bring the most powerful message the World has ever known? "Do not be afraid," the archangel told bewildered shepherds-and Linus told Charlie Brown. "(I) was in my parents' den, in Rockville, Maryland, watching an 18-inch Philco black and white TV. The person proclaiming the gospel wasn't a priest or deacon or minister. It was a little boy with a blanket. It was "A Charlie Brown Christmas," recalled Deacon Greg Kandra in a Christmas sermon. Though the classic show found immediate popularity, it almost didn't make it on air. Deacon Kandra said, "The executives were nervous about not having a laugh track...nervous about using real children for the voices...and they were REALLY nervous about having that piece of Scripture included...but (creator Charles) Schulz stuck to his guns.

The result is one of television's most beloved and

Gospel: Matthew 3:1-12

Like John the Baptist, every parent "prepares the way of the Lord" in the hearts of their children. Advent is a good time to ask; "Do I help or hinder my children to know Jesus?"

LIVE MASS aired Every Sunday from Saint John Gualbert Cathedral in Johnstown on WATM-TV ABC Channel 23 If you are homebound and not able to attend the Sunday Mass, please watch our Diocesan Program Proclaim at 10:30 a.m. and the live telecast of Sunday Liturgy at 11:00 a.m.

most popular Christmas specials.” In fact, that call took courage, to not be afraid, holds true, says the Deacon, no matter who you are or what tragedies have touched your life. “Even in this darkest of nights, there is light. A savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord. Here is our hope,” said Deacon Kandra. “He didn’t come in grandeur or majesty, to intimidate us. He came as the most helpless and dependent creature of all: a baby, in a manger, in Bethlehem. He loves us so much, God came to us as someone we could not help but love.”
