Stewardship Reflections

February 16, 2025 –
6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today’s readings speak of an essential quality for the Christian steward – hope. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, “Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ’s promises and relying not on our own strength but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit (CCC 1817).”

In many ways, this is the very definition of a stewardship way of life – focusing on eternity as we live our daily lives and relying on God to provide for our needs and satisfy our deepest longings for meaning and happiness right now.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus describes the character of one who is living a life of hope – the life of a Christian steward whose trust is firmly rooted in God and who is focused on others and eternity. It is not always an easy life, but it is a deeply meaningful life and one that leads to eternal reward.

Pro Life

February 16 - Isn’t it interesting that in science fiction movies involving time machines those who travel back in time are warned not to take a life because they could alter the future by destroying future generations? Time travel is not yet possible, yet we are destroying our future generations every day because of abortion.
