Formula for a Success Marriage: A reporter, interviewing a couple who were nearing their 50th wedding anniversary asked them the secret for their long and successful marriage. The husband said that he learned the secret from his father-in-law. A few weeks before the day of the wedding, the young man asked his future father-in-law what he could do to make his wife-to-be happy. He received his answer in a small package given to him by his father-in-law the morning of the wedding. “This is all you need to know to make your marriage work,” said the father-in-law. Opening the package, the husband-to-be found a gold pocket watch. Inscribed across the cover of the watch where he would be sure to see it several times a day was the message: “Say something nice to Sarah.” It seems simple enough to do, but from your own family life you are probably aware that compliments and praise are not always part of the daily routine. However, they very easily could be if we acted upon our intuitions more often. It’s just that family is generally, and too often, taken for granted. Consequently, little things are overlooked. Yet it’s those little things that make strong and lasting bonds. A daily compliment is a small enough thing. Let the encouragement of others spring to your lips freely and easily. St. Augustine gave some sage advice when he said, “You aspire to great things. Begin with little ones.”

Liturgical Reflection The primary and original reason for reservation of the Eucharist outside Mass is the administration of viaticum. The secondary ends are the giving of communion to the sick and the adoration of our Lord Jesus Christ present in the Sacrament. The reservation of the Sacrament for the sick lead to the praiseworthy practice of adoring the heavenly Food that is reserved in churches. This cult of adoration has a sound and firm foundation, especially since faith in the real presence of the Lord has as its natural consequence the outward, public manifestation of belief in the real presence of the Lord found in the consecrated elements. Holy Communion and worship of the Eucharist Outside Mass, 1975, Number 5. Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 South Logan Boulevard, Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania 16648.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION Only when you share your time, abilities and finances with as attitude of gratitude founded in the love of Jesus, can that sharing be seen as Christian stewardship.

Gospel: Luke 4:21-30

Mary and Joseph must have been proud when their village “all spoke well of Jesus and were amazed at his words.” But they probably felt shame when the same people drove him out of town. Like Mary and Joseph, the highs and lows of parenting are our path to being a Holy Family.
