February 8, 2026 – 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today’s readings are pep talk and part marching orders for us as Christian stewards. They offer wonderfully clear guidance on what matters most to God in the way we prioritize our lives and the way He intends for us to use the gifts He has given us.

The first reading, from the prophet Isaiah, gives us very straightforward instructions: “Thus says the Lord: Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed, and the homeless; clothe the naked when you see them, and do not turn your back on your own.” The Lord gives no wiggle room here – care for our brothers and sisters in need is a “must do” for the Christian steward. Note, too, that these instructions require actions – to share, to shelter, to clothe, and to hang in there with your family members. Even the demanding ones.

Our Gospel passage, from Matthew, sends us on our stewardship way with a bang as Jesus declares to us, His disciples, that we are the “salt of the earth” and the “light of the world. But, He adds, salt no longer gives flavor if allowed to go stale, and light cannot bring its blessed brightness if left hidden. Therefore we must act! We must live our lives so that others will see the things that we do – the ways that we serve others, care for the vulnerable, prioritize our family relationships and, above all, our love for God – and then give Him glory!
