A Christmas Creed: I Believe that Christmas is more than a time for parties and ornaments; it is a time for remembering Christ and the incarnation of God's love in human flesh. I Believe there are gifts more important than the ones under the Christmas tree; the things we teach our children, the way we share ourselves with friends, and the industry with which we set about reshaping the world in our time. I Believe that the finest carols are often sung by the poorest voices; from hearts made warm by the wonder of the season. I Believe in the angel's message that we should not be afraid-that the Child of Bethlehem is able to overcome all anxieties and insecurities. I Believe in prayer and quietness as a way of appropriating Christmas-that if I wait in silence I will experience the presence of the one born in the manger, for He lives today as surely as He lived then. I Believe in going away from Christmas as the wise men went "another way." I want to be different when

LITURGICAL REFLECTION... The Word has become flesh and dwells among us. This Christmas Day Christians celebrate the mystery of the eternal Word of God becoming one like us in all things but sin. The Eternal Word lived on this earth, to reveal to us the great love of God. God who has no beginning or end has arrived as an infant in a manger. We are filled with awe as we attempt to understand the mystery of this birth. Angels and shepherds sing Christmas praise. We join in singing- Glory to God in the highest and peace to people of good will!

Stewardship Reflections

July 13, 2025
15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings show us that to live as good stewards means to follow God's commands and to live our lives as a gift in service to others. In today's Gospel passage, from Luke, we read the well-known parable of the Good Samaritan. Here, Jesus Himself teaches us in rich detail what stewardship in action looks like. The hospitality and generosity in serving others, shown through this parable, are essential to a stewardship way of life.

Do we have this same hospitable openness to others around us? What can we do to become more aware of the needs of others, and more open to settings aside our own plans to care for those in need?

That is how we live out God's commandments. That is true hospitality and service. That is how a good steward springs into action when he comes upon a neighbor in need. And Jesus says to each of us personally, just as He did in today's Gospel. "Go and do likewise."
