Stewardship Reflection: The theme of “shepherds” and “shepherding” flows through all our readings. It is the Gospel that summarizes best what the Lord did for us, and what He continues to do for us. The disciples have just returned from mission work in several communities and villages. They are tired and Jesus recognized that His disciples needed to rest and recover. However, when He saw the crowds He was “moved with pity for them,” and His compassion outweighed everything else because they were truly “sheep without a shepherd.”

If we are dedicated to being a disciple of Jesus Christ, and live our lives as good stewards, there are going to be times when we, too are weary, and may feel like we can do no more. Like the Lord, we must learn to gather our strength through Him, to place our trust in Him, and to take the next steps in our faith journeys by doing more, by responding to the needs we see around us.

PRO LIFE CORNER

July 18, 2021- Pro-choice is a play on words that has cost 64,000,000 million lives in America since 1973 through surgical abortion. Pro-choice is no choice for the pre-born, it’s always death to the baby.

July 18, 2021: 16th Sunday (Mark 6:7-13)

In today’s gospel, “the apostles gathered around and told Jesus all they done.” Listening allows the other person to express, understand and appreciate their experiences. Whether it is the excited chatter of a young child or the repetitious stories of an aging grandparent, listening is important. It is not just well spent, it is sacred time.
