12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today’s readings call us to tackle the challenging issues of fear and trust – two concepts on opposite sides of the same coin. They must be confronted and dealt with by all of us who wish to live the stewardship way of life.

In our first reading, from Jeremiah, the prophet expresses sentiments we have all felt at some point in our lives, when he says, “I hear the whispering of many: ‘Terror on every side!’ Perhaps this ‘whispering’ comes from the culture that insists we must think of ourselves, our own interests, our financial comfort first – only when we are certain that our own needs are met can we think of serving God and sharing with others. Perhaps when we consider stepping out of our comfort zones, the fear inducing whispers come from within us -“you’re too weak, too selfish, too broken to really live as Christ’s disciple.” Yet, just when Jeremiah is nearly overcome with fear, he remembers the truth, and it is just as true for us today. “The Lord is with me, like a mighty champion,” Of course!

Let’s stop wasting any more time with fear, Instead, let’s put all our energy, all our time, our talents and our treasure into trusting this great God, and using all that we are and all that He has given us to bring Him glory,

Pro Life- JUNE 21-“If one is to be deprived of life because of potential for developing physical problems, consistency would dictate that those who already have such deficiencies should likewise be terminated. Continuing, then, those who are infirm, incompetent, or inconvenient should be eliminated by those in power. Such irreverence for life is unthinkable!” Reverence for Life
