Risk of Listening

“People have an uncanny faculty of hearing but not really listening. Words go in one ear and out the other, especially when they present a challenge.

Because of pride or stubbornness or for some other reason, people refuse to really listen to each other.

Disputes go unresolved, misunderstandings deepen, chances for peace and happiness and love are lost.

If it seems risky to listen with care, there is an equal risk on the other side. By not listening, people risk missing the very words which hold the key to true greatness, self-fulfillment and happiness.”

SANCTUARY CANDLE:

The Sanctuary Candle acknowledging The Real Presence of Christ in the tabernacle is burning this week in loving memory of Sheldon Leonard rb Mary and Family

PRO LIFE CORNER

May 23, 2021- If we were made to watch a doctor pull off the little baby's legs and arms one by one and place them on the table like a dentist removing cotton from your mouth – if all Americans were made to see what it really is, the pro-life goal of abortion being unthinkable (not just illegal) would be much nearer. – John Piper John

Gospel: Pentecost Sunday John 15:26-27:

16:12-15) Today, on Pentecost, we remember Christ has given us the Holy Spirit to assist us in raising our family and he expects us to use this personal gift. Let us turn-off the noise, apps and distractions in our lives and let the Holy Spirit “guide us to the truth.”
