November 23, 2025 – Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

On this Feast of Christ the King, our readings show us that we serve the greatest of Kings, who is at the same time the humblest of Kings. Christ is the perfect model of servant leadership. And what an indescribable privilege that He has called us to be servant leaders – stewards in the work of advancing His kingdom.

What powerful lessons this King teaches us from the Cross. We learn that true leadership is displayed in emptying ourselves for others; that true greatness is delayed by way of humility; that none of us is worthy of the call to stewardship of His kingdom but that all of us, like the good thief, are welcomed and invited to take up this call. Following in His footsteps will involve suffering and sacrifice. Yet how can we say no to the King who loves us so completely and promises that His faithful stewards will one day be with Him in Paradise?

November 23, 2025: Christ the King (LK 23:35-43)

Today's gospel reminds us the Kingdom of Heaven is not like Disney's Magic Kingdom. Admission to Christ's Kingdom is paid with the currency of acceptance, forgiveness, attention to the poor and love of one's enemy.

November 23 -“Why is it that those with a liberal persuasion, when faced with difficult human problems, often seem to formulate a ‘solution’ ending in death? Whether it’s a teen pregnancy, a Down’s syndrome child, a comatose patient or an elderly patient, they appear to favor the same answer death. Whatever happened to “bearing another’s burdens?”

LIVE MASS aired Every Sunday from Saint John Gualbert Cathedral in Johnstown on WATM-TV ABC Channel 23 If you are homebound and not able to attend the Sunday Mass, please watch our Diocesan Program Proclaim at 10:30 a.m. and the live telecast of Sunday Liturgy at 11:00 a.m.
