November 16, 2025 – 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we approach the end of the liturgical year our readings offer a sober reminder that this life is not our aim and that God's justice will triumph in the end. Now is the time to get our priorities in order, putting God above all else as His faithful stewards.

Before the eternal bliss of heaven, we should expect to be tried and tested. "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name." Sounds scary, but if you are living a stewardship way of life, there is nothing to fear. You have a plan in place – all you need to do is stick with it. Put our Lord first in your time, with your talents, and through use of your treasures. This way of life is not meant to be easy, but Jesus promises it will lead to eternal salvation and the joy of union with Him. "You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance, you will secure your lives."

Onward Christian stewards, the struggle is worth the joy that awaits!

November 9, 2025: Thirty-Second Sunday (John 2:13-22)

The question of the Sadducees to Jesus is framed in a story about a family with seven brothers and sister-in-law. Through story telling families remember their shared past and expose the companionship of God in your family from generation to generation.

November 9 -Another real casualty of abortion, besides the babies who are killed, the women who suffer, and the doctors who do the killing, is our own humanity. Every society is judged by the way it treats its defenseless and dependent. If we continue on this path toward inhumanity, our society and our civilization will certainly perish.

If you know of Prayer Requests for a sick parishioner: Write the name or petition in our Parish Prayer Request Book located in the vestibule of our church.
