Stewardship Reflection: Our culture constantly encourages us to do what we can to get ahead in this world, to do what feels good, no matter the effects; that power, authority, and wealth should be our goal. Our faith offers us something different and fulfilling. As Christian stewards, we are called to give our lives in humble service of God and neighbor, just as Jesus did. Our life is not supposed to be only about us. It is about fulfilling God's glorious plan. So, we must ask ourselves, are we living to reach His goal for me, personally? Is my life centered on Christ and others or is it "all about me?"

It can be difficult to know God's plan for our entire life. He sees the whole picture, we can only see the now. All we can do is seek Him daily. If each day is centered on Him, then our entire lives will become the work of Jesus. So let us make it our daily mission to do the will of God in Spirit and action. It will look different for each one of us.

Family Ritual:

Fall is here! The beauty of the leaves changing and the coolness of the air give us a great opportunity to enjoy nature. Very soon the winter weather will be upon us, and for many it will be preferable to spend a lot of time inside. While there is still nice weather, make sure to take your family out to appreciate it! St. Francis of Assisi had a deep appreciation for the world around him and was able to see God's presence there. So, like St. Francis, let's get out into this marvelous creation to see and appreciate the magnificent work of God!

SANCTUARY CANDLE:
The Sanctuary Candle acknowledging The Real Presence of Christ in the tabernacle is burning this week in loving memory of Poor Souls

COLLECTION COUNTING SCHEDULE for:

Gospel: October 17, 2021: 29th Sunday (Mark 10:35-45)

"Advice" books abound on marriage and parenting. Jesus tells us in today's gospel the real secret: satisfying relationships depend on how well we sacrifice our needs to serve others. It is not about "getting," it is about "giving" ourselves. If you feel like you are a servant to your children and spouse, then you are doing it right.

Prolife: October 17, 2021-

This quote by Mother Teresa is prophetic, especially in these past couple years in America. "We must not be surprised when we hear of murders, killings, of wars, or of hatred... If a mother can kill her own child, what is left but for us to kill each other?"
