A PRESENTATION

A hallmark of priestly activity is the doing of jobs that no one else wants, and often those jobs for which a particular priest is uniquely ill suited. Take this introduction for example. Members of God's Household (that's what Bishop Adamec calls parishioners) have assigned me, a fellow whose two major obsessions in life are the present moment and the immediate future, the task of thinking fondly and writing eloquently about the recent past.

Generally speaking, the only good thing I have to say about the past, recent and otherwise, is that it's over. When I think globally images of the Crusades, the Reformation, the Holocaust and Hiroshima, come to mind. Pondering local history serves up an unwieldy array of racism, sexism, ethnocentrism and denominationalism.

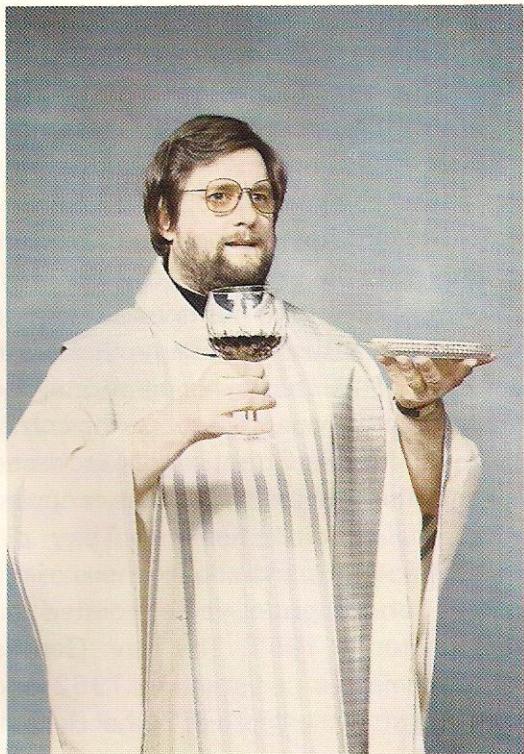

My lips greet each new morning with the words Francis of Assisi daily addressed to his little band, "Let us begin today for until now we have done very little." Each evening my mind fills up with the poet's words Robert Kennedy popularized, "some men see things as they are and say, 'why?'; I dream of things that never were and say, 'why not?'"

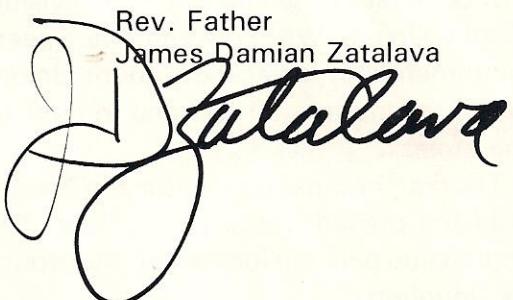

Such a mind set can and often does pose serious problems for a Pastor trying to live and work among and with a people who insist on living in the past ... and, nearly all Catholics insist on living in the past. (In fact, it's sometimes hard for me to believe that Catholics "invented" the "get on with living your life, already" Sacrament, i.e. the Sacrament of Reconciliation.)

One simply cannot ignore this dilemma in hopes that it will go away. Nor can one go over, around, or under it. One must go through it. And, just how is that done?

Thank God for the Mass, the Eucharistic celebration, that one grand banquet where the host, Jesus Christ, whom Paul says is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow, invites yesterday's Saints (the Church Triumphant), tomorrow's Saints (the Church in Purgation) and today's Saints (the Church Militant) to all sit down together and eat His Body and drink His Blood. While we are at Mass the past and the future merge into the wonderful moment of the present. While we are at Mass there are no memories of what once was or dreams of what might yet be. While we are at Mass we are all one with one another. We are in Jesus and Jesus is in us. We become what we eat. We are becoming The Body of Christ.

And so, without fear of contradiction, dear friend, I present this book to you using the same words I use at Communion time. Here is, "the Body of Christ."

Rev. Father
James Damian Zatalava

75 YEARS OF FAMILY

The history of the parish records the leadership of its priests and the empowerment of its members. It tells of faith, love and hope of its people.

The story of St. Catherine's really began when John Dougherty and wife, Catherine, donated eight acres of ground on June 21, 1872, to the Catholic people for a church. The few Catholics in the area at that time assembled for mass at the Dougherty home and at stated times were visited by a priest on missionary journeys. Father John Walsh was one of the first priests to celebrate mass at the Dougherty home.

Permission to build a church in Mount Union was given by the Most Reverend Eugene Garvey, D.O., first bishop of the Altoona Diocese to Father Tolan, pastor of Most Holy Trinity Church in Huntingdon. On Sept. 2, 1912, T.C. Peduzzi was awarded the contract at $8,630.10 for the new church. The architect was J. Herbert Hall. The church was constructed of red brick and a slate roof. The excavation was done by Henry and Samuel McGarvey.

The three altars were a donation from St. Matthew's Church in Tyrone through the Cullen Family. The bell was donated by Patrick Geraghty and named in honor of St. Patrick. Services continued to be held in the Dougherty home until the dedication of the church on Aug. 31, 1913.

The church was dedicated St. Catherine's in memory of Mrs. Catherine Dougherty. John and Catherine had seven children, Edward, Mary, Theodore, Eugene, Victoria, Victor and Gerald, when they came to the vicinity. Dougherty was a man of progress and charity and at one time, he owned most of the land west of Division Street in Mount Union. With George W. Speer, he was instrumental in laying out Mount Union in 1846, getting a charter in 1867 and in naming many of the streets.

The first three pastors lived in the Dougherty home until the present rectory was built. The rectory, church and park are located on the ground donated by Dougherty.

About 500 people attended the dedication of the church. A special train came in over the East Broad Top to bring many participants to the worship service.

The Bodnar family is well known to many parishioners even today. Andrew Bodnar, one of the pioneers, labored fervently in many ways for the erection of the church. He was the first organist. His brother, John, served as the altar boy, sexton and contributed in many ways to the material comfort of the priest. Another brother, Stephen, continued as organist after Andrew's departure. The last of the brothers, Michael, contributed by singing in the choir. The first marriage of the church was that of Fred Dughi and Theresa Peduzzi (sister of Carl Peduzzi of Mount Union) on Sept. 10, 1913.

St. Catherine of Sienna Church became a parish on July 1, 1921 and St. Mary's Church in Shade Valley became its mission until June 7, 1962. The Rev. Michael Zamba was appointed first pastor on July 1. The Rev. Thomas O'Donnell succeeded him as the second pastor on July 6, 1922, to Nov. 14, 1922. Both worked zealously in their brief stay.

The Rev. John A. Kerkoska became the third minister, Nov. 14, 1922. During his pastorate, many improvements were made. The debt was paid off. The present rectory was built at a cost of $10,752 in 1925. The church grounds were graded, a Grecian retaining wall was constructed, steps and railings leading up to the church and rectory and sidewalks around the property were erected. The grounds were terraced and sodded. A cemetery of three acres in Shirleysburg was acquired and blessed. The church was repaired in 1934.

After the death of Father Kerkoska in 1945, the parish was administered for a time by the Rev. Alphonsus Sobota, TOR, who continued the good work. The Rev. Joseph Rusnak became the fourth pastor on Jan. 22, 1943. During his pastorate, the debt was paid off. The Taylor property on the corner of Washington and Market Streets was purchased and remodeled for the convent which was occupied for sisters of the mission helpers. They did catechetical work and took an annual census of the parish. The Rev. John Orlando was appointed the first assistant pastor in 1951. The Rev. George Grega succeeded him as assistant in 1952 and remained in charge after the death of Father Rusnak on Oct. 25, 1952.

75 YEARS OF FAMILY

Father John Golias was appointed fifth pastor in July 1953. Many improvements were made during his pastorate. A new pipe organ was installed, new kneelers put in the church, a new driveway and sidewalks around the church were constructed. The new school fund was increased to a point where construction was seen in the near future. Church organizations were revitalized and attendance at mass was notably increased. In May 1954, Father John Halka was appointed assistant pastor, a position he held until June 1962.

The sixth minister was Father Gerald Oeler and a cherished dream of the parish became a reality during his administration. The first Catholic School in Huntingdon County was built at a cost of $140,000. Ground was broken in March 1959 and the new school was blessed and dedicated Oct. 18, 1959. The seventh pastor was Father Joseph Tomko. Following the transfer of Father Tomko, the Rev. Paul Thomas began his pastoral duties at St. Catherine's in April 1967. He spent 19 years of giving of himself unselfishly and most devotedly to the parish until his retirement in October 1986. He had been an integral part of the formation of the church organizations such as the Knights of Columbus, Columbian Squires, Catholic Daughters of the Americas, Junior Catholic Daughters, CCD program, altar boys, lectors, commentators, church choir and other activities. He composed and published, My Ticket to Heaven. He was active in community endeavors.

The Rev. Father James Damian Zatalava began pastoral duties at St. Catherine's on Nov. 1, 1986. He came from Holy Cross Church at Spangler and previously served as chaplain at the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown. In his brief time at the church, extensive remodeling has occurred at the rectory and the entrance to the church has taken on a new look. Eucharistic ministers are now part of the service of the church. Women are taking an active part in the worship.

After the school at St. Catherine's was discontinued, the school hall became a busy center which is currently used for various church and community functions. The former convent was taken over by the Knights of Columbus and later sold.

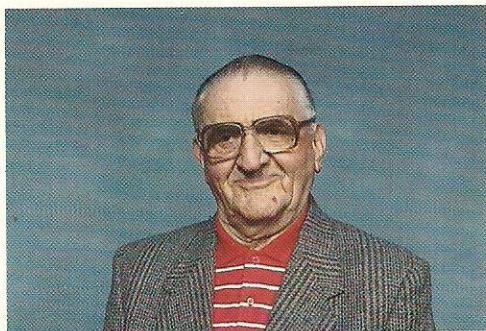

The community of Saint Catherine in Mount Union has gone through good times and bad times, growth times and decline times, prosperous times and hard times in the past seventy-five years. But, as the present Pastor keeps reminding the community, the only truly important times are the next seventy-five years.
